Sixty Two In Two Hours

Albuquerque – Wednesday morning State Police Officers saturated the interstate and issued 62 citations.

Five (5) State Police Officers out of the Albuquerque State Police office saturated the north and south bound lanes of Interstate 25 north of Tramway in the construction zone, from 6:30 to 8:30 seeking out traffic infractions. Within hours the officers issued Sixty-Two citations. The majority of the citations issued were speeding since they were in a construction zone; the average fine was $250.00 and a few others for various infractions.

Traffic Enforcement Operations such as these will continue, and will be increased in the I-25 construction corridor.
