Joint Law Enforcement Warrant Operation

Las Vegas – Friday morning Law Enforcement officers saturated the San Miguel county area with a coordinated warrant round up, the overall operation netted 26 arrests and five others turning them selves in once they heard the officers were out. The warrants ranged from DWI, Traffic Violations, Probation and Narcotic absconders.

More than 54 officers from 14 different agencies contributed to this joint operation, comprised of State Police, Las Vegas PD, US Marshalls, San Miguel, Mora, Colfax and Harding Sheriffs Departments, New Mexico Game and Fish, Adult Probation and Parole, Mounted Patrol, Department of Corrections, Raton PD, Highlands University PD, 4th Judicial District DA's office Region 4 Task Force.

The absconders arrested were transported to the command post at the San Miguel County Magistrate court office for processing and later booked into the San Miguel County detention facilities without incident. Joint Operations such as these will continue around the state and are coming to a town near you. If you are wanted or have any outstanding warrants take the time to address your obligations with the judicial system.
