Las Cruces Resident Killed in Motorcycle Crash

Las Cruces – 47 y.o. Myke Browning of Las Cruces, NM died Thursday afternoon from a motorcycle crash in Dona Ana County.

State Police officers from the Las Cruces office responded to a single vehicle crash just after 6:30 PM Thursday afternoon near Las Cruces, on US 70 (Bataan Memorial West). Through the officers' investigation they learned that Browning was traveling west bound on US 70 near mile post 159 on his 1992 Honda Motorcycle, when he drove off the roadway over a curb in a northern direction. Browning struck a down sign then he and the motorcycle fell onto their right side and subsequently slid a moderate distance, coming to rest on the north side of US 70.

The Office of the Medical Investigator pronounced Browning deceased on scene, with severe facial and head trauma. The operator was not wearing a helmet and alcohol was not a contributing factor.
